TO ALL

- Members of the Political Bureau and the Central Committee;
- Madam President of the National Bureau of the WCPDM;
- Mr Vice President of the National Bureau of the YCPDM;
- Heads of the Permanent Regional and Divisional Delegations of the Central Committee;
- Presidents of the CPDM, WCPDM and YCPDM Bureaus of the Basic Organs;

Theme: "All behind President Paul BIYA, to guarantee national cohesion and strengthen living together in a one and indivisible Cameroon".

In communion with all our compatriots, the great family of CPDM militants, allies, friends and sympathizers will celebrate, on 6 November 2019, the 37th Anniversary of the New Deal, which marks the accession of H.E. Paul BIYA to the Supreme Magistracy.

The celebration is taking place after the great moment of national fraternization that brought together all the driving forces of the nation as well as Cameroonians living abroad, around the Major National Dialogue, organized at the Yaounde Conference Centre from, 30 September to 4 October.

[Signature]

Initiated by the Head of State and led by the Prime Minister, Head of Government, the meeting revealed the unyielding commitment of our compatriots to the integrity of the national territory, peace, national unity and the preservation of our diversity.

Cameroon is equally proud and jealous of its sovereignty, though keeping an open mind to the rest of the world. It emerged on this occasion, as if to distinctly remind everyone that, Cameroon remains master of its destiny in all circumstances, in as much as it remains firmly attached to the founding fathers of the nation's patriotism, whose priority and fundamental struggles focused on the unity and indivisibility of the territory.

Although it mainly focused on finding solutions to the security crisis in the North West and South West Regions, this major consensus forum, enabled Cameroonians of good will to transcend resentments and prejudices, so as to dialogue in fraternity, trust and sincerity over issues underpinning living together, upon which social harmony depends.

Together with their fellow compatriots and participants, the fellow CPDM militants invited to this important event gave their best to contribute to the success of the Major Dialogue through responsible supports and proposals, inspired by the general major contribution of the Party.

The 37th Anniversary of the New Deal provides yet another opportunity for the CPDM Central Committee, to sincerely thank all its compatriots who kindly participated, in one way or another, in this great moment of collective catharsis with respect to the directives given by the Head of State in his message to the Nation, on 10 September 2019.

On this exceptional occasion, we hereby invite CPDM militants, friends, sympathizers and allies as well as our compatriots of good will, to make of this 37th Anniversary of H.E. Paul BIYA's accession to the Supreme Magistracy, a moment of celebration with no common ground, of our "living together" and our will to be and remain, above all, daughters and sons of a one and indivisible Cameroon, throughout the national territory.

This therefore explains the meaning behind the theme, chosen this year by the Party, which recommends that we mobilise; "All together behind President Paul BIYA to guarantee national cohesion and strengthen living together in a one and indivisible Cameroon".

In the wake of the National New Deal, an unending source of inspiration for our compatriots, we should, more than ever, give our support to the President of the Republic, His Excellency Paul BIYA, who, after having lauded the smooth way in which it was carried out, promised to effectively use the recommendations of the Major National Dialogue, for the benefit of our country.

On this special day, we call on our compatriots in the North West and South West Regions, to remain committed to the impetus of the Major National Dialogue and strongly support the President of the Republic and the Prime Minister, Head of Government in their efforts to eventually bring back lasting peace and a normal life in their localities.

In the practical sense of it, festivities marking the 37th Anniversary of H.E. Paul BIYA's accession to the Supreme Magistracy in the various sections will bring together CPDM militants, friends and sympathisers as well as allied parties. They will be organised by the various CPDM Section Presidents, assisted by the Executives of the WCPDM and YCPDM Sections.

As ever, the Heads of the Permanent Regional and Divisional Delegations will supervise and lead the celebrations, with the assistance of local elites at all levels, especially members of the Government, members of Parliament, members of the Central Committee and national bureaus of the WCPDM and YCPDM, municipal magistrates, Heads of public and private companies, economic operators, etc.

Finally, in view of the forthcoming elections, we strongly recommend you to seize the opportunity of 6 November 2019 celebrations, to strengthen the level of preparation to allow the CPDM obtain the targeted success. In the same effort, you are invited to make of this event a memorable one, symbol of the Cameroon people's determination to continue working tirelessly towards its destiny and emergence in 2035.

Bonne fête.

The Secretary General of the Central Committee,

Jean NKUETE
