Theme: “Celebrating the victory of the force of experience and the National New Deal”

6 November 2018 marks the 36th anniversary of His Excellency Paul BIYA's accession to the helm of State.

The event coincides with the swearing-in of the President of the Republic in the person of Paul BIYA, elected democratically by the Cameroonian people at the 7 October 2018 presidential election. This God-given Statesman whose outstandingly historic track record only commands deference will thus be fulfilling his destiny.

We avail ourselves of this joyful opportunity to once again extend our sincere gratitude to all our compatriots who voted for President Paul BIYA, and to thank all voters for their political maturity which enabled the smooth conduct of the poll.

At this very special time, we are inviting militants, friends, sympathizers and allies of the Cameroon People's Democratic Movement, as well as all our compatriots of good will to make this double event a moment of unprecedented celebration nationwide because the circumstances are unique in the world, and reveal even better Cameroon's specificity in the concert of nations.

In the aftermath of the 7 October 2018 presidential election, which was exemplary by virtue of its transparency, thereby confirming the great maturity of the Cameroonian people and showcasing our country's impressive democratic strides, as President Paul BIYA, by taking the oath of office, makes another date with history to fulfil Cameroon's destiny, the Republic can well afford a few moments of merrymaking.

Accordingly, we will make 6 November 2018 a day of great celebration, the celebration of the victory of the force of experience, of course, but also the celebration of the National New Deal which, over the years, at a measured and consolidated pace, has continued to strive relentlessly towards making the hopes and dreams of the entire nation come true.

- Hopes and dreams of real and lasting peace;
- Hopes and dreams of irreversible national unity;
- Hopes and dreams of authentic and solid democracy;
- Hopes and dreams of greater and better shared prosperity;
- Hopes and dreams of a Cameroon of hope and dreams for all.

Since the dawn of time, peoples have always afforded moments of joy to celebrate the fatherland, express their determination to overcome pitfalls and build stability for collective happiness, because joy builds fraternity and prepares peace.

In all the sections, feasting to mark the above-mentioned double event will be led by CPDM Section Presidents, assisted by officials of WCPDM and YCPDM sections. Feasting will consist of grand festive rallies by militants, friends, and sympathizers of the CPDM, as well as militants of allied parties and the local populations.

Prior to feasting proper, it is recommended to watch live and in public, the broadcast of the swearing-in of the president elect, His Excellency Paul BIYA, which will be the kick-off for the day's events.

As usual, Heads of Regional and Divisional Permanent Delegations will supervise and direct the said events which will be supported by all the local elite, notably Members of Government, Members of Parliament, Members of the Central Committee and WCPDM and YCPDM National Executives, municipal administrators, General Managers of public and private corporations, economic operators, etc.

We urge you to do everything to make this 6 November 2018 a memorable day, a symbol of the determination of the Cameroonian people to pursue its march towards its destiny, in strict compliance with our country's motto which prescribes the triple objective of Peace, Work, Fatherland.

Happy celebration to all.

Yaounde, _____

The Secretary-General of the Central Committee
